

Interview Questions: MUD Jeans

1. Business Model, Profitability, and Strategy

- How does MUD Jeans sustain its finances while prioritizing longevity over frequent new sales?
- In what ways does sustainable fashion prove to be as economically viable as conventional models?
- What specific strategic milestones does the company aim to reach within the next five years?
- What kind of innovative models is MUD Jeans developing for the future of circular fashion?

2. Leasing Model and Returns

- How does the leasing model perform from a long-term commercial perspective?
- What are the current statistics regarding the return rate in the leasing program?
- What is the standard procedure for handling jeans that are not returned by customers?
- To what extent is MUD Jeans considering the expansion of leasing to other product categories?

3. Competition, Brand Profile, and Customer Benefit

- How does MUD Jeans differentiate its identity from other sustainable competitors?
- How does the company navigate the pressure from low-cost Fast Fashion competitors?
- What are the most compelling arguments for a customer to choose MUD Jeans over cheaper alternatives?

4. Retailers, Distribution, and Partnerships

- What specific support systems are provided to retailers to facilitate product sales?
- What are the requirements regarding minimum orders or exclusivity for retail partners?

5. Materials, Recycling, and Supply Chain

- What is the exact proportion of recycled content currently integrated into new products?
- By what methods does MUD Jeans ensure transparency and control within its supply chain?
- How is the recycling process managed for stretch denim given the challenges of elastane?
- What plans exist for the introduction of product lines beyond the denim category?

6. Employees, Corporate Culture, and Technology

- What particular traits and values are sought after in potential team members?
- What are the most critical factors evaluated during the recruitment and hiring process?
- In what ways are digitalization and AI being integrated into the company's operations?